Jokes

Mary had a little bike,
She bought it for one dollar,
And everywhere the front wheel went
The back wheel had to follow!
P. Frederickson.

Notices

Recently, "The Star" received a new Hectograph (a printing apparatus). This machine will enable us to print between twenty to thirty copies.

Two-Generation Pet

A South Fremantle cross-bantam hen which has just had its 22nd birthday, has outlived itself four times. The hen, "Auntie", belongs to Mr. William Kiagg of Hickory street, south Fremantle. cont. on p. 2

Mr. Kiagg bought the hen, in 1940, for his seven-year-old daughter, Mary. Mary is now married, and the hen is a pet for her two children. Mrs. Kiagg said that the hen is losing her memory.

Note: The department of Agriculture says the average life of a hen is between four and five years.

Soccer Mix-up

State Soccer officials were refused permission to present 22 visiting English soccer players with inscribed wrist watches. The disappointed officials instead gave the watches to local players. The slightly bewildered local players now have the watches inscribed "To the English visitors from the N.S.W. Soccer Federation."
